Tuesday Nov 14, 2017

9:00 AM to 4:00 PM

First of 3 regional symposiums for professionals engaging in North Carolina's local, regional and statewide response to Human Trafficking

The goal of the symposium is to deliver clear and guided information across a broad spectrum of trafficking related issues from demand to identification, from service to prosecution. The symposium will increase North Carolina's multi-disciplinary service provider's knowledge of the complexity of Human Trafficking and create a sustainable training model utilizing current research and best practices recommendations.

First of three regional trainings
