

CAN YOU CHALLENGE BLET?

Do you have at least 2 years full-time experience as sworn law enforcement officer either in North Carolina or with a Federal or Out-of-State Agency? Note: Military Law Enforcement is not credited.	Yes. You will need to provide documentation of your prior service as well as documentation that such service meets the definition of sworn law enforcement position.
Did you hold certification with the relevant Peace Officer's Standards and Training agency either in North Carolina, another state, or federal agency?	Yes. You will need to provide documentation of this certification.
Did you hold general powers of arrest either in North Carolina or with a Federal or Out-of-State Agency?	Yes. You will need to provide documentation that your service meets the definition of general powers of arrest.
If you answered YES to the above questions, you have a choice between:
Option 1 Within the twelve month probationary period, challenge the BLET state examination and undergo a skills assessment. The applicant must score a minimum of 70% to successfully complete the state examination. The skills assessment consists of five areas: First Responder; Firearms; Law Enforcement Driver Training; Officer Health & Wellness (Physical Fitness); and Compliance & Control Tactics. The applicant must demonstrate satisfactory knowledge of each skills related activity before an appropriate instructor certified	Option 2 Enroll in and successfully complete a Basic Law Enforcement (BLET) course offering in its entirety.

by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission. Successful completion of the skills related activities must be documented on a Commission approved form by the certified instructor.
---	--