

CONSUMER PROTECTION RESOURCES FOR MILITARY FAMILIES

If you've been a victim of a scam, unfair practice, or unlawful debt collection, we want to help.

File a complaint with the North Carolina Department of Justice at ncdoj.gov/complaint, or call us toll-free within North Carolina at 1-877-5-NO-SCAM.

From outside North Carolina, call 919-716-6000.

For assistance in Spanish, call 919-716-0058.

If you feel that you have been wronged, you can file a complaint with us and we'll work to help resolve it. If we find a pattern of illegal business practices, we can enforce the law on behalf of North Carolina consumers.

Learn more about common scams and ways to protect yourself at ncdoj.gov.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

The North Carolina Department of the Secretary of State, Charitable Solicitation Licensing Division (CSL) regulates charities and professional fundraisers throughout the state. CSL maintains a registry where you can search for registered entities that seek donations on behalf of veteran organizations. For more information, visit sosnc.gov.

The North Carolina Department of Military and Veterans Affairs provides support and services to military members, veterans, and their families and focuses on protecting North Carolina's military installations. For more information, visit milvets.nc.gov.

The Federal Trade Commission provides tools to help military servicemembers and their families maintain financial readiness and avoid scams. For more information, visit militaryconsumer.gov.

Attorney General

Josh Stein